ORDER

Statement of the Case

This matter came before the Office of Campaign Finance (hereinafter OCF) Office of General Counsel following a determination by its Public Information Records Management Division, that pursuant to the D.C. Code §1-1106.02 (2001 Edition), James C. Bullock, Assistant Chief, Street and Alley Cleaning, Department of Public Works, failed to timely file, a Financial Disclosure Statement for calendar year 2002, on or before May 15, 2003 as required by D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02 and also failed to file on or before the OCF sanctioned extended filing deadline of June 19, 2003.

By Notice of Hearing, Statement of Violations and Order of Appearance dated August 7, 2003, OCF ordered James C. Bullock (hereinafter respondent), to appear at a scheduled hearing on August 18, 2003 and show cause why he should not be found in violation of the D.C. Campaign Finance Reform and Conflict of Interest Act of 1974, as amended by D.C. Official Code §§1-1101.01 et seq., and fined accordingly.

Summary of Evidence

OCF alleges that the respondent failed to timely file the statutorily required Financial Disclosure Statement for calendar year 2002, on or before June 19, 2003.

On August 18, 2003, respondent appeared at the scheduled hearing and testified that he filed the required Financial Disclosure Statement online. Respondent further stated that he confused OCF's Financial Disclosure Statement with the Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests he is required to file with his agency. Respondent asserted that the first notice he received of the filing delinquency was OCF's

Notice of Hearing, Statement of Violations and Order of Appearance. Respondent is a Management Supervisory Service (MSS) employee.

Findings of Fact

Having reviewed the allegations and the record herein, I find:

1. Respondent was appointed to the Management Supervisory Service.
2. Respondent was required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement with OCF for calendar year 2002, on or before June 19, 2003.
3. Respondent filed the required Financial Disclosure Statement on August 12, 2003.
4. Respondent is a first-time required FDS filer.
5. Respondent believed that the Notice of Hearing, Statement of Violations and Order of Appearance was his first notice from OCF.
6. OCF issued notices on April 12, 2003 and May 28, 2003 to the same address of record as listed on the hearing notice.
7. Respondent asserted that he confused the filing of OCF's Financial Disclosure Statement with the Confidential Statement of Employment and Financial Interests he is required to file with his agency.
8. Respondent's explanation for the filing delinquency is credible in that he confused the FDS filing with the Confidential Statement of Employment he is required to file annually by May 15th with his agency, and in that he is a novice to the FDS filing requirements.
9. Respondent is currently in compliance with the statute.

Conclusions of Law

Based upon the record provided by OCF, I therefore conclude:

1. Respondent violated D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02.

2. The penalty established at D.C. Official Code §1-1103.05(b)(3), and 3DCMR §§3711.2(aa), 3711.2 and 3711.4 for failure to timely file a Financial Disclosure Statement required by D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02 is a fine of $50.00 per day for each business day subsequent to the due date.
3. In accordance with D.C. Official Code §1-1103.05(b)(3), the respondent may be fined a maximum of $1,800.00 for failing to timely file a Financial Disclosure Statement.
4. For good cause shown pursuant to 3DCMR §3711.6, the Director of Campaign Finance (Director) may modify, rescind, dismiss or suspend any fine.
5. Respondent's explanation for failing to timely file constitutes good cause for suspension of the fine.
